SCORING RECORD

Baltimore Colts	0	14	0	3	6—23
New York Giants	3	0	7	7	0—17

Baltimore: TDs: Ameche 2, Berry. FG: Myhra (20 yds.). PATs: Myhra 2.

New York: TDs: Triplett, Gifford. FG: Summerall (36 yds.). PATs: Summerall 2.

THE BIG ONE . . . Head down, Alan "The Horse" Ameche drives across the goal line with the touchdown that gave the Colts the 1958 world's championship. On left Lenny Moore takes out Giants' Em Tunnell while Jimmy Patton (#20) moves in—too late—on right.

The 1958 NFL

The 1958 National Football League championship seemed sure to pit the Western Division champion Baltimore Colts against the Eastern champs, the Cleveland Browns.

Coach Weeb Ewbank's Colts were well in front of the second place Chicago Bears in the West, and Paul Browns behemoths "were in" in the East as November ended and the season went into its final stages.

Baltimore, although dropping its final two games of the regular season, was home free, but Cleveland fans had a rude awakening. Their beloved Browns were not the NFL champs, nor were they even Eastern Division champs.

On December 14, at New York's Yankee Stadium, in the final game of the regular schedule, the upstart New York Giants upset the Browns, 13-10. Cleveland had opportunities to win the game, or even tie it and take the divisional crown, but they lost.

Next week was another game and certainly the Giants weren't going to stop Jimmy Brown and Company two weeks in a row. But, they did and stopped him dead. Brown was stopped as dead as another Brown, John, and so were Cleveland's title hopes. New York capitalized on Cleveland's mistakes and won, 10-0, for the right to meet Baltimore.

A crowd of 64,185 paid its way into Yankee Stadium, called the Home of Champions because of the baseball team's great record, to see as thrilling a game as a Hollywood script-writer could dare dream up in his wildest nightmares.

Baltimore kicked off and the game was under way . . .

Baltimore had the first scoring opportunity, late in the first quarter. Steve Myhra's attempt for a field goal went wide, but he got a second shot thanks to a Giant off-side. This time Sam Huff blocked the kick and New York recovered. Then, at 12:58 of the opening session, Pat Summerall split the uprights from 36 yards out and New York led, 3-0.

The Colts raced back in the second period to score two touchdowns and take a 14-3 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

Alan Ameche drove over from the two for the first TD after Gene Lipscomb's recovery of a Frank Gifford fumble on the New York 20 had set up the series of plays. The score came at 2:26, and Steve Myhra converted.

Another Gifford miscue, this time recovered by Don Joyce on the Colt 14, set up touchdown No. 2. Johnny Unitas clicked on passes to Ray Berry and Alan Ameche and Ameche and Lenny Moore ground out the yardage to finish it. Unitas hit Berry with a pass and the Colt end raced the final 15 yards to go over at 13:40, Myhra again converting.

The Colts had a chance to ice the game midway in the third quarter but the Giant line held, stopping Baltimore who had the ball with first and goal to go on the New York three.

A Charlie Conerley to Kyle Rote pass play, covering 86 yards, set up the Giants' first six-pointer. Mel Triplett bulled across from the one at 11:14 and Summerall converted to cut the Colt edge to 14-10 going into the final 15 minutes.

New York was on the march. They scored in the first minute of the final quarter to take a 17-14 lead as Conerly hit Bob Schnelker with passes of 17 and 46 yards before firing to Gifford in the end zone for the tally. Summerall split the bars and the fans went wild.

Baltimore's last ditch rally began with less than two minutes remaining. Carl Taseff took Don Chandler's punt on the Baltimore 14 and the wheels were set in motion.

Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas put on a pitching display worthy of a Bob Feller. He connected on four straight tosses to move the ball to New York's 13.

And, with seven seconds showing on the clock, Steve Myhra kicked the biggest field goal of his career. That made it 17-17 and sent the game into an unprecedented sudden death period.

A coin was tossed and New York elected to receive. Bert Rechichar booted to Don Maynard. New York worked the ball up to their own 29 and kicked on fourth down and one.

L. G. Dupre carried from his 20 to the 31 for a first down and the Colts were on the march. Dupre carried for two more and Unitas hit Ameche on the 41 for another first down.

Unitas, Dupre and Ameche surged forward to the New York 20 for another first down and the fans were whooping it up. Would Baltimore go for the field goal, would they risk a pass, could the stoic Giant line hold up again as they had done so magnificently all season?

Unitas found Berry with a 12 yarder and the Colts had the ball on New York's eight, first and goal to go. Ameche picked up one and Jim Mutscheller one on a Unitas pass. Then, at 8:15, Ameche, "The Horse", and a work horse he was all afternoon, drove through right guard and Baltimore had won its first world championship, 23-17.

The heros: Certainly Myhra, Unitas, Ameche, Moore, Berry, Dupre and the rest of the team all rate that title along with the big one, National Football League kings of 1958.

GIANTS' SAM HUFF (dark jersey) blocks field goal attempt by Colts' Steve Myhra early in first quarter. Steve came back to kick one in last seven seconds that sent game into overtime.

Fred Thurston (g) traded to Green Bay Packers.

Coach Weeb Ewbank (right) of the Colts congratulates his passing star, quarterback Johnny Unitas, following the championship game against New York last December.

Weeb Ewbank reached the goal all pro football coaches aim for, the Worlds Championship, when his Baltimore Colts defeated the New York Giants, 23-17, in sudden death play last December.

A former tackle at the University of Miami (O.), Ewbank got his coaching experience at his alma mater, the Great Lakes Naval Station, Brown University, Washington (Mo.) University and under the old master, Paul Brown, with the Cleveland Browns.

The Richmond, Indiana native, saw his first venture with the Colts a frustrating one. Baltimore won but three of their 12 games in his rookie year at the helm, 1954.

Gradually, under Ewbank's guidance, the Colts moved along. In 1957 they were in contention until the final weeks of the season, when losses to San Francisco and Los Angeles broke the spell. The 7-5 mark was good, but not quite good enough.

Last season was a different story. The Colts were not to be denied. They compiled a 9-3 mark for the Western Conference title and then the dramatic win over New York for all the marbles.

Ewbank, who lives in Baltimore year around, is out to repeat this year. He's tasted the fruits of victory and wants more.

JOHN UNITAS

Quarterback . . . Born May 7, 1933, Pittsburgh, Pa.
6'1" . . . 190 lbs. . . . Louisville

Ninth draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955, Unitas saw limited service and was released . . . Joined Colts in early '56 when George Shaw was injured . . . With Louisville, Unitas hurled for over 3,000 yards and 27 touchdowns . . . In 1956 he completed 110 passes for 1,498 yards and his 55.6 pass completion percentage was the best ever turned in by a rookie in the NFL . . . Led the league in 1957 with 24 TD passes and 172 completions for 2,550 yards. His 8.47 yard average in '57 was third best . . . Last year his passes gained 2,007 yards and he ranked fifth in the league with a 7.63 percentage . . . Only seven of Unitas' 263 passes were intercepted . . . Johnny was named Most Valuable Player in the NFL for 1957 . . . His performance in last Fall's playoff game against the Giants was one of the most brilliant jobs of quarterbacking in NFL history . . . Now lives in Baltimore.

LENNY MOORE

Halfback . . . Born Nov. 25, 1933, Reading, Pa.
6'1" . . . 190 lbs. . . . Penn State

Colts' No. 1 draft choice in 1956 . . . Streaked for record 2,380 yards and 25 touchdowns in three years at Penn State . . . In rookie season with Baltimore he reeled off 649 yards and was credited with 488 in '57 . . . A top notch receiver, Lenny ranked fifth in the NFL in this department in 1957 with 40 catches for 687 yards and scored 11 touchdowns . . . Last season Moore was tied for second in individual scoring with 84 points on 14 TDs . . . He pulled in 50 passes, 4th best in the loop, for 938 yards and added 598 on the ground . . . Named to All-League offensive team, he played in Pro Bowl game last January . . . Now lives in Baltimore.

GINO MARCHETTI

End . . . Born Jan. 2, 1927, Antioch, Calif.
6'4" . . . 240 lbs. . . . U. of San Francisco

Broke into NFL in 1952 with New York Yanks as their No. 2 draft choice . . . With Dallas that season when franchise moved . . . Came to Baltimore with Colts in 1953 . . . A World War II veteran, Gino saw action in the "Battle of the Bulge" . . . Missed only 20 days following an appendectomy in '54 . . . Wears brace since suffering shoulder separation in 1955 . . . One of the best defensive ends in league, Marchetti has been named to three straight All-Pro teams and played in the last five Pro Bowl games . . . Like many of his teammates, Gino lives in Baltimore.

ART DONOVAN

RAY BERRY

End . . . Born, Feb. 27, 1933, Paris Texas 6'2" . . . 190 lbs. . . . S.M.U.

Baltimore's 20th draft choice in 1954 . . . Named to second team in All-Southwest Conference in '54 . . . Won All-League honors in NFL last year on offensive team . . . Berry scored nine touchdowns last year for 54 points . . . His 56 passes caught tied him with the Eagles' Pete Retzlaff of honors in that department and the 794 yards gained on these passes was third high in the loop . . . In '57 Berry caught 47 passes for runner-up honors in that department and led the league with 800 yards while scoring six times . . . His dad coaches high school football in the Lone Star State.

ART DONOVAN

Tackle . . . Born June 5, 1925, Bronx, New York
6'3" . . . 270 lbs. . . . Boston College

Art was drafted by the Colts in 1950, their fourth choice in the "frozen player pool" . . . Cleveland claimed him when the Colts folded, then traded him to the New York Yanks in 1951 . . . He played for the Dallas Texans in '52 and returned to Baltimore with the Colts in 1953 . . . Named to All-Pro defensive team four years in a row, Donovan is one of the NFL's all-time great tackles . . . His father is the famed boxing referee and his grandfather was once middleweight champ . . . Donovan now lives in Baltimore . . . He has played in the last six Pro Bowl games in Los Angeles.

*Missed entire 1958 season due to injuries.

President and head coach of the Bears, George Halas has been with the club since its entry into the National Football League in 1920.

A former Illinois end, Halas served as player-coach of the team, then known as the Chicago Staleys, in 1920-21, and was player-coach-owner from 1922 through 1929.

He handed the coaching reins over to Ralph Jones in 1930, but was back as field boss again in 1933 and held that post until Oct. 25, 1942, when he entered the Navy. Halas resumed coaching in '46 and was the "Papa Bear" until 1956 when he turned the job over to Paddy Driscoll.

Driscoll held the job for two seasons and in 1958, it was again, Coach George Halas.

The Bears of George Halas have turned out some of the greatest teams and individual stars in the history of the National Football League. To name them would be like giving a who's who in the NFL.

Along with his former great quarterback, Sid Luckman, Halas can take credit for the T formation in football as we know it today.

As long as "Papa Bear" is there, Chicago fans can be sure their Bruins will be right up there fighting for the championship.

Chicago Cards

HOME: Soldier Field, Chicago, Illinois.

SEATING CAPACITY: 105,000.

COLORS: Cardinal Red and White.

HEAD COACH: Frank (Pop) Ivy.

Starting his second season as head coach of the Cards for whom he was a star end for many years.

A native of Skiatook, Okla., Frank was an All-America selection at the University of Oklahoma during his playing days. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1939 and traded to Chicago in '40.

Nicknamed "Pop" because of his bald dome, Ivy served in the Army from 1942 to 1945. He finished his playing days in 1947, as a defensive end.

In 1948 Ivy returned to his alma mater as an assistant to Bud Wilkinson. In his six years with the Sooners, Oklahoma was one of the nation's grid powers.

Frank took the head coaching job with Edmonton of the Western Interprovincial Football Union in 1954 and guided the Eskimos to three Grey Cups, symbol of Canadian pro football supremacy. In four years with Edmonton, Ivy's teams won 50 and lost 14, the best record ever achieved by a coach in the Canadian pro ranks.

The 43 year-old Cardinal coach has a tough job ahead, but if anybody can make the team a contender, Pop Ivy can do it.

Brown was born in Norwalk, Ohio, Sept. 7, 1908, but his family moved to Massillon when he was 12. After high school, Paul enrolled at Ohio State. He transferred to Miami of Ohio and quarterbacked their football team for two seasons.

After graduation he turned to coaching. His first job was at Severn Prep and his teams in 1930-31 turned in a 16-1-1 record. He returned to his home town of Massillon and coached the Massillon High eleven from 1932 through 1940, turning in an 81-7-2 mark. The following his high school teams got was astounding, with crowds outdrawing every college team in the state except OSU.

Paul signed to coach the Buckeyes in 1941 and in three seasons of Big Ten ball saw his teams post an 18-8-1 score. His '42 squad, nine and one, were the national collegiate champs.

In 1944 Brown entered the navy and was commissioned a lieutenant. He coached at Great Lakes Naval Station for two years and compiled a 15-5-2 record including a 39-7 victory over powerful Notre Dame.

When the Browns were organized for the AAC, Brown was lured away from the Ohio State campus to which he had expected to return following the war.

His teams played havoc with the AAC and he proved his coaching genius by continuing his winning ways in the National Football League. Since joining the pros in '46, Brown has turned in a record of 137 wins, 34 losses and five ties. As long as Brown is in the organization, the Browns will be a team to reckon with.

Paul is married and has three sons.

Detroit Lions

HOME: Briggs Stadium, Detroit, Michigan.

SEATING CAPACITY: 52,555.

COLORS: Honolulu Blue and Silver.

This is Wilson's third season as head coach of the Lions and the former Chicago Bear already has one World Championship to show for his work.

A native of Chicago, Wilson attended Northwestern University.

His pro career began in 1937 with the Bears and he wound up his active days in 1946 as player-coach. After two seasons as assistant to George Halas, Wilson moved on to Detroit in a similar post under the late "Bo" McMillin.

George became No. 1 assistant under Buddy Parker in 1951 and he held that post until Aug. 13, 1957, when he was appointed head coach.

Wilson, who is 45 years old, makes his home in Dearborn, Mich., with his wife and five children.

HEAD COACH: Vince Lombardi.

VINCE LOMBARDI

First season as head coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers. This is his first head coaching job above high school.

Born, June 11, 1913, Lombardi is a rarity among pro coaches, never having played in the NFL himself. He attended Fordham University and was a regular guard in the celebrated line known as "The Seven Blocks of Granite".

He was graduated in 1937 and studied law before turning to coaching at St. Cecelia's High School, Englewood, N. J. In eight years his teams won six state titles and had a 36 game winning streak.

In 1947 Lombardi installed the T formation at his alma mater while coaching the Fordham frosh. Next came a job coaching the Army offensive platoon at West Point under Colonel Red Blaik and then the NFL.

Jim Lee Howell appointed Lombardi as one of his assistants when he took over as head coach in New York in 1954 and Vince remained with the Giants until Green Bay beckoned.

Married and has two children.

Lawrence Timothy (Buck) Shaw, football's "Silver Fox", is now in his second season with the Philadelphia Eagles.

A former tackle at Notre Dame (1919-21) Shaw has 35 years of coaching in the college and pro ranks behind him, 25 as head coach.

His first coaching job was as assistant at Nevada back in 1922 and '23. Then came head coaching jobs at North Carolina State (1924), Nevada (1925-28), Santa Clara (1936-42), University of California (1945), the San Francisco 49ers (1946-54), the U. S. Air Force Academy (1956-57) and finally Philadelphia last year.

Shaw's 1936 and '37 Santa Clara teams won Sugar Bowls, beating L.S.U. on both occassions. The school suspended football in '42 but Buck stayed on to direct the physical training program for military students. In '45 he accepted a temporary appointment as head coach at California.

With the forming of the All America Conference in '46, Shaw turned to the pros and San Francisco. He guided the 49ers for nine years, four in the AAC and five in the NFL, winning 71, losing 39 and tying four.

Buck and his wife live in Menlo Park, California. They have two married daughters.

MISSING FROM 1958 SQUAD

Paul "Tank" Younger (fb) retired.

Darrell Dess (t) traded to New York Giants.

A rarity among pro mentors is Buddy Parker of Kemp, Texas.

Parker, who attended tiny Centenary College in the State where almost everything is so big, has never coached any place other than at the top, in the National Football League.

Buddy first entered the NFL in 1935 and divided his playing time between Detroit and the Chicago Cards. In 1943 he was appointed player-coach, assisting Phil Handler, who was then head coach of the Cardinals.

When Jimmy Conzelman resigned after the 1948 season, Parker and Handler were named co-coaches of the Windy City eleven. Midway through the '49 season Parker was given complete command, but he resigned after the end of the season to become an assistant to Bo McMillan at Detroit.

He succeeded McMillan the following year and held forth in the Motor City as head man until his dramatic resignation just prior to the '57 season.

Parker has been with the Steelers since '57. His Steeler teams have been moving steadily forward, from 6-6 in '57 to 7-4-1 last year. This year? Well, Parker's been on top before and likes it, who's to say he won't have the Steelers there.

Coach Sid Gillman (left) and co-owner Dan Reeves of the Rams go over the list of prospects at last Winter's draft meetings.

Sid Gillman has been a coach for 25 of his 48 years and a darn good one as the records clearly show.

Born in Minneapolis in 1911, Gillman played his collegiate ball at Ohio State where he won all-Big Ten honors and All-American mention at end in 1931-32-33. He played with the Collegiate All-Stars in the first Pro-All-Star game in '34 as well as the East-West Shrine game.

In 1935 he put in a season with the Rams, the team he now coaches, when Cleveland was their home. From 1934 to 1942, Sid served as line or end coach with Ohio State, Denison University and Miami of Ohio.

He got his first head coaching post at Miami (O.) in 1944 and turned in an 8-1 record. With a 31-6 mark in four seasons, he moved to Army in 1948 as line coach under Col. Red Blaik. The Black Knights went through the '48 season undefeated and in '49 Gillman accepted a new post, that of head coach at the University of Cincinnati.

The Bearcats' football hit an all-time high in Gillman's six years, 50 wins against 13 losses and one tie.

Since 1955, when he was named to succeed Hampton Pool, Gillman has been at the helm of the Los Angeles Rams. His record with the West Coast club has been a good one and with the new players he has added for '59, Sid may bring the NFL title to California.

MIKE NIXON

Mike Nixon took over as head coach of the Redskins this season when Joe Kuharich left to accept the head coaching job at Notre Dame.

The 47-year-old Nixon played pro ball briefly with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941-42 after having been an All-American halfback at Pittsburgh in 1934. He played in the 1933 Rose Bowl and later served as backfield coach at his alma mater and the University of West Virginia.

Nixon's first job as a coach in the NFL came back in 1941 under the late Dr. John (Jock) Sutherland. He put in one year as player-coach in Brooklyn and from 1946 through 1951 handled the Steeler backs for Sutherland. Mike was with the Chicago Cards under Joe Kuharich in '52, Pittsburgh again in '53 and joined the Redskin staff in August of '54.

A former Southern Association baseball player, Nixon was a Naval officer from 1943-46. He also served as a State senator and union leader. He is married and has a daughter.
